~~Y~~
~~You~~

I am disappointed with your June 21 evening news report on the TOPFREE picnic at Genesee Valley Park. That you chose to interview someone who was/is not a spokesperson for us women and present him as such ~~is~~ yielded a story that was inaccurate. ~~The comments he made on~~ the ~~news~~ dialogue you had with Ms Schloss about topfree equality being the first step toward nudity

The question "what next, ~~nudity~~ bottoms?" in your news coverage on June 21 of the Topfree Picnic gives an inaccurate & unsatisfactory slant to an event that is ~~not~~ about women's equal protection under the law. ~~Pertinent~~ Clothing optional areas is an important issue but is NOT the issue of this picnic. That you focussed on a man who is not a spokesperson for this cause but IS the local co-ordinator for nudism ~~is not unfortunate coincidence but not surprising~~ resulted in ~~a~~ the public viewing your program recieving ~~the~~ distortions of our real purpose plans & goals. We women seek to eradicate sexual discrimination under the current New York State statute that requires us to
